The Show

Up with People performs a two-hour show at the end of each week in a community. The show has been performed in 71 countries around the world, and has been seen by over 1.1 billion people in the last 50 years. The show features original music and international songs and dances to inspire, energize and entertain the audience. The show is unique in its artistic format and authenticity and highlights the bonds and what unites young people from many nations. It is joyful, contemporary and suitable for the whole family to enjoy.

Plan to attend the February 20 performance - 7 PM, Sisam Arena in the Johnson Wellness Center, Grand View University, Des Moines. Tickets are $50 for VIP, $20 for adults, $15 for students, and $12 for children under 6. To purchase tickets, go to www.upwithpeople.org/desmoines.

Please buy your tickets before show time to guarantee your seats! Only a few tickets will be available at the door.

Host an International Participant

Each of these international cultural ambassadors will stay in a host family while in Des Moines. Consider hosting one or more for a week. Or refer a friend or neighbor for this unique experience. Local sponsors and the Up with People advance team are available for more information. Go to www.upwithpeople.org/hostfamilies for more information.

The Week

Members of the troupe arrive Monday, February 15. During their week, they will be performing over 1,000 hours of community service. They'll be at local grocery stores collecting food items for the DMARC Food Pantry, helping out at Youth Emergency Shelter & Services (YESS), organizing food at the Food Bank of Iowa, and performing at various schools in the Des Moines area among other things.
